FAIRBANKS BECOMES PART OF THE SYNAFORCE GROUP

Munich, Jun 9, 2026

The synaforce Group continues its growth trajectory and expands its service portfolio in the area of cloud and IT infrastructure: With Fairbanks, a specialist in managed Openstack, Ceph, and Kubernetes solutions becomes part of the group. This strategically strengthens synaforce's competencies in the areas of cloud solutions, managed services, and digital sovereignty.

Fairbanks develops and operates efficient, resilient, and user-friendly IT infrastructures with a focus on open-source technologies. The company particularly addresses issues such as data, operational, and technological sovereignty and, according to its own statements, has over 20 years of experience, activities in over 34 countries, and more than 200 clients. Their service offerings include private cloud solutions, managed services, consulting, emergency assistance, and training.

By integrating Fairbanks, synaforce complements its existing 360-degree offering of data center, managed services, cloud solutions, and software solutions with additional technological depth in the area of open cloud architectures. This creates even more comprehensive, secure, and scalable solutions for modern IT infrastructures for customers.
