Sancovia advises Ufenau Capital Partners on the sale of the Spanish CVS Group to Eiffage

Frankfurt am Main, Sep 5, 2025

Sancovia Corporate Finance successfully advised Ufenau Capital Partners on the sale of the CVS Group, a leading Spanish provider of engineering-driven technical building services, to the listed French Eiffage Group. Eiffage is one of the leading construction and infrastructure companies in Europe.

Based in Valencia, the CVS Group offers comprehensive technical building solutions as a full-service partner – particularly in the areas of refrigeration and fire protection technology, from planning and installation to maintenance and renovation. With over 300 employees at ten locations throughout Spain, CVS delivers customized, regulatory-compliant solutions for renowned clients in the food, logistics, and retail sectors. The group conducts more than 10,000 maintenance operations annually and generates around 50% of its revenue from recurring services.

Through the acquisition, Eiffage strengthens its position in the Iberian market and expands its presence in the field of technical building services. The transaction is a strategic step towards further expanding competencies in the areas of energy-efficient infrastructure, sustainable technologies, and service business with recurring revenues.

Sancovia accompanied the seller as an exclusive M&A advisor throughout the entire transaction process.
