Provance Education invests in Geopol and Corporepol

Madrid, Jun 23, 2025

Provance Education has partnered with Geopol and Corporepol, marking the beginning of its ambitious plan to create a leading company specialized in both online and in-person vocational training.

Geopol is an academy based in Alicante with a presence in Valencia, Madrid, and Murcia, specializing in the preparation of candidates for the National Police and Civil Guard entrance exams. Known for its innovative teaching methods and advanced online platform, Geopol has earned a strong reputation in the sector.

Corporepol is a Madrid-based academy specializing in the preparation of candidates for the National Police, Municipal Police, and Mobility Agent exams. It is widely recognized as one of the leading academies in the preparation of Madrid's Municipal Police exams. The academy stands out for its comprehensive studying programs and high success rates among its students.

Provance Education aims to strengthen its market position through organic growth by expanding its course offerings and advancing digitalization. In parallel, it will pursue to integrate additional educational institutions, broaden its geographic reach, and reinforce its leadership in vocational training across Spain.

As the exclusive M&A advisor, Sancovia initiated both transactions and advised the buyer throughout the entire process.
